OUR EDUCATIONAL GOALS

Stehekin School's Education Goals

When education is conducted congruent with the physiological and psychological requirements of the developing child, intellectual, artistic, physical, and social growth will occur. With this fact in mind, the goals of Stehekin School's curriculum are established to:

- meet each student with a dynamic curriculum that actively promotes intellectual, artistic, physical and social growth;
- integrate all educational disciplines throughout the curriculum;
- involve children in practical activities calling for intense concentration while building intellectual stamina;
- bring community members into contact with students to share a variety of skills;
- seek beauty in all school work – we do less, more carefully, more fully;
- actively engage children in listening, speaking and “doing” activities throughout the course of each school day;
- inspire children to be curious, creative and confident; and
- encourage students to become life-long learners.

Family & Community Engagement

Each semester community members visit the school to share knowledge and skills with the class. Advantages associated with this contact are twofold: First, students gain from practical lessons presented by community members. Second, community members gain first-hand knowledge of the reality of teaching students in the one-room school setting. The curriculum objectives in a one room school are supported by “classroom helpers” who offer classroom assistance throughout the curriculum.

Keep Students at the Center

Intentional outreach to continue building relationships and maintain connections.

Help students feel safe and valued. We will:

- Plan for Student Learning: Build on each student's strengths, interests, and needs and use this knowledge to positively impact learning. Ensure that social-emotional learning needs are addressed when planning.
- Develop a Weekly Plan and Schedule: Offer routines and structures for consistency and to balance think time, work time and playtime for health and well-being.
- Contact Families: Partner to support student learning through ongoing communication and collaboration.

Design Learning for Equity and Access

Plan and deliver content in multiple ways, so all students can access learning.

- Teach Content: Set weekly goals using knowledge of each student and Washington state student learning standards.
- Deliver Flexible Instruction: Consider how to deliver content depending on tools and resources accessible to each student. Delivery of instruction may include printed learning materials and phone contact, email, technology-based instruction, or a combination to meet diverse student needs. Provide opportunities for student voice and choice. These may include project-based learning.
- Engage Families: Communicate with families about engagement strategies to support students as they access learning. Families are critical partners.
- Technology: Stehekin school values in person and hands on learning. Use of technology is done in the home environment with parent support.

Assessing Student Learning

Manage and monitor student learning and plan what's next for learning.

- Check Student Learning: Use a variety of strategies to monitor, assess, and provide feedback to students about their learning
- Make Instructional Adjustments: Use formative assessment results to guide their reflection on the effectiveness of instruction and to determine the next steps for student learning.
- Engage families: Communicate with and seek input from families about assessment results in order to inform the next steps. Provide translations as necessary.

English Language Learners, Special Education, and Homeless Students

- Stehekin School does not currently have any students who are qualified or served as English Language Learners, Special Education, or Homeless.

Part IV: Diagnostic Assessments

Diagnostic assessment is a particular type of formative assessment intended to help educators identify students' specific knowledge, skills, and understanding in order to build on each student's strengths and specific needs. Because of their domain specificity and design, diagnostic assessments can guide curriculum planning in more specific ways than most summative assessments.
